

AN ACT OF LOVE,

a voluntary taking on oneself of some of the pain of the world, increases the courage and love and hope of all.

—Dorothy Day